 - iii. Patron Members may vote at a GM.

5.2 Application for ordinary membership

- a. Any person who supports the objects of the Association and agrees to be bound by its rules may apply for membership of the Association.
- b. The application for membership shall be made by filling in a form, as determined by the Committee of the day.
- c. Upon the acceptance of the application by the Committee and upon payment of the first annual subscription, the applicant shall be a member of the Association.

5.3 Subscriptions

- a. The subscription fees for membership shall be set at a GM from time to time.
- b. The subscription fees shall be payable annually, with membership expiring by the 1st of January.
- c. Any member whose subscription is outstanding after the expiration date shall cease to be a member of the Association, save and except for members of the Committee who are instead subject to 6.6.
- d. Life members, and Patron members are exempt from membership fees

5.4 Resignations

A member may resign from membership of the Association by giving written notice to the Committee. Any resigning member shall be liable for any outstanding subscriptions which may be recovered as a debt due to the Association.

5.5 Expulsion of a member

Subject to giving a member an opportunity to be heard or to make a written submission, the Committee may, by two thirds majority of votes cast, expel a member upon a charge of misconduct detrimental to the interests of the Association, the AUU or its affiliates, or The University of Adelaide.

5.6 Register of members

A register of members must be kept and contain:

- i) their full name;
- ii) student number (where applicable) and;
- iii) an email address.

6. THE COMMITTEE

6.1 Powers and duties

- a. The affairs of the Association shall be managed and controlled by the Committee which, in addition to any powers and authorities conferred by these rules, may exercise all such powers and do all such things as are within the objects of the Association, and are not by these rules required to be done by the Association in general meeting, provided that the affairs of the Association shall be managed and controlled by the Executive between meetings of the Committee.
- b. The Committee has the management and control of the funds and other property of the Association, provided that such management and control may be exercised by the Executive between meetings of the Committee.

- c. The Committee shall have authority to interpret the meaning of this Constitution and any other matter relating to the affairs of the Association on which these rules are silent.
- d. The Committee may make policies and rules pertaining to the management and affairs of the Association, so long as those policies and rules do not contravene this Constitution.
- e. The Executive shall, between meetings of the Committee, act in the interests of the Association and in accordance with this Constitution and resolutions of the Committee and general meetings of the Association.

6.2 Membership of the Committee

- a. The Committee shall be comprised of:
 - i. The Governing Council, the members of which shall be:
 - the Executive, the members of which shall be:
 - the President who shall chair all meetings at which the President is present and act as the spokesperson for the Association;
 - the Vice-President who shall fulfil the responsibilities of the President if the President is unable to;
 - the Secretary; who shall be responsible for minuting all meetings of the Association and maintaining the membership and other records of the Association; and
 - the Treasurer; who shall be responsible for maintaining the financial accounts and records of the Association.
 - Two Communication Officers and a Media & Graphic Designer who would be responsible for promoting AUScA through social media tools
 - the Events Coordinator; who shall be responsible for the organization of networking events.
 - not more than four Year-Level Representatives;
 - and such number of General Members so that the total number of the Governing Council (excluding any 'Appointed Person') does not exceed fourteen; and
 - any person/s appointed under this clause 6.2 as an 'Appointed Person'; and

- a. The Committee may, before proceeding to the despatch of other business, decide to which committee members the following roles will be assigned:
 - i. Our Loyal Leader of the Opposition (O.L.L.O.)
 - Who shall be designated ‘Devil’s Advocate’ and tasked with putting, at their discretion, an opposing view in any discussion or seek to put in doubt any previously accepted convention.
 - ii. Morals Officer
 - Who shall be tasked with recording and reporting what in their humble opinion they perceive to be immoral or moralistic acts, inappropriate or political correct behaviour, and general debauchery or ultra-conventionalism of the Association or any of its members. All of their reports should be given and taken in good humour.
 - iii. Sergeant-at-Arms
 - Who shall be tasked, at the direction of the Committee, with maintaining good order and security, and shall mediate and any grievances or disputes between members of the committee in which they are not directly involved. All matters raised with the Sergeant-at-Arms shall be kept in confidence.
 - iv. Assistant Treasurer
 - Who shall be tasked with aiding the Treasurer in the discharge of their duties, and with receiving receipts and other financial statements in the Treasurer’s absence.
 - v. Assistant Secretary
 - Who shall be tasked with aiding the Secretary in the discharge of their duties, and with minuting meetings in the Secretary’s absence.
- b. The Committee may vary or make a further decision if the applicable committee member ceases to be a member or declines to accept or continue the assigned role. and as often as said positions become vacant shall again choose members to fulfil said positions.

6.4 Proceedings of Meetings

- a. The Committee shall meet together for the despatch of business at least monthly during the Academic term.
- b. At least 24 hours notice must be given to members of the Committee for a meeting of the Committee, and to members of the Executive for a meeting of the Executive.
- c. Questions arising at any meeting of the Governing Council, Committee or the Executive shall be decided by a majority of votes cast, and in the event of equality of votes the President shall have a casting vote in addition to a deliberative vote.

- d. A quorum for a meeting of the Committee shall be seven members of the Committee, two of whom must be members of the Executive. If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the scheduled start, the meeting will be postponed to a date, time and place determined and notified by the President (or delegate thereof).
- e. Votes by proxy or post are not permitted.
- f. Committee members may 'call-in' to a meeting if they have a legitimate excuse to be unavailable. In these circumstances they may vote and provide feedback on committee decisions.
A quorum of members must still be present, as well as at least two executive members, for a meeting to proceed in these circumstances.
- g. For all 'non-essential' votes that require immediate action that arise outside of a committee meeting, an online vote may take place for the committee to decide. In the event of a hung (even) vote, the President shall reside over the final decision made.

6.5 Sub-committees

- a. The Committee may delegate or devolve to a sub-committee a matter/s within the objects of the Association.
- b. A sub-committee may be comprised of members of the Committee, including Associate members, and members of the Association, provided that the number of non-Committee members does not exceed the number of Committee members on the sub-committee.
- c. The Committee shall assign one of the Committee members on the sub-committee to be the Officer thereof,
- d. The Officer, or a delegate thereof, shall chair all meetings of that sub-committee.
- e. Each Officer of a sub-committee shall appoint an Assistant of that sub-committee to be responsible for minuting meetings of the sub-committee.
- f. At least 24 hours notice for a meeting of a sub-committee must be given to the members thereof and to the President and the Secretary. Any member of the Executive may attend ex officio any meeting of a sub-committee of which they are not a member.
- g. The quorum for any meeting of a sub-committee shall be half of the members of that sub-committee, one of whom must be the Officer or the Assistant thereof.
- h. The Treasurer, with approval from the Committee, may allocate funds of the Association for the use by a sub-committee for the purpose/s for which the sub-committee was formed.
- i. A sub-committee may, with a two-thirds majority of votes cast, make binding decisions in relation to matters for which it was formed. Such binding decisions shall be confirmed, varied, or rescinded at the subsequent Committee meeting. Any matter/s about which a sub-committee cannot agree may be referred by the sub-committee to the next meeting of the Committee.

- j. A report of each meeting of a sub-committee shall be provided at the next meeting of the Committee, including details of any expenditure by the sub-committee.
- k. A sub-committee will cease by resolution of the Committee at any time.
- l. All sub-committees shall be deemed to cease upon the commencement of an Annual General Meeting.

6.6 Disqualification of committee members

The Governing Council shall declare a position on the Committee vacant if the applicable person:

- i. is expelled as a member of the Association under this Constitution;
- ii. resigns as a member of the Association;
- iii. fails to attend three (3) consecutive Committee meetings without a leave of absence being granted by the Committee or President;
- iv. fails to pay the subscription fee when it is due; or
- v. breaches the prohibition against securing profits for members.
- vi. Fails to have any communication with the committee for more than three weeks without reason

7. GENERAL MEETINGS

7.1 Annual general meetings

- a. The Committee shall call an annual general meeting in accordance with this Constitution.
- b. An AGM shall be held once in an Academic Year.
- c. The AUU administration shall be notified of the calling of an annual general meeting.
- d. The order of the business at the meeting shall be:
 - i. The confirmation of the minutes of the previous annual general meeting and of any special general meeting held since that meeting.
 - ii. The consideration of the accounts and reports of the Committee.
 - iii. Proposed constitutional amendments, if any.
 - iv. The election of Committee members.
 - v. Designation of bank signatories, if any.
 - vi. Updating of details for the Association's Australian Business Number, if applicable.
 - vii. Determination of membership fees.
 - viii. Consideration of any Life or Patron membership appointments proposed by the Committee.
 - ix. Any other business requiring consideration by the Association in general meeting.
- e. An attendance list, summary of the President's report, summary of the Treasurer's report and the Returning Officer's report shall be returned to AUU Administration within 14 days of the conclusion of the annual general meeting.

7.2 Special general meeting

- a. The Committee may call a special general meeting of the Association at any time during the Academic term.
- b. Upon a requisition in writing of not less than thirteen members or those who have been members within the last 12 months of the Association, the Committee shall, within two weeks of the receipt of the requisition, convene a special general meeting for the purpose specified in the requisition.
- c. Every requisition for a special general meeting made under 7.2b shall be signed by the relevant members and shall state the purpose of the meeting.

7.3 Notice of general meetings

- a. At least seven days notice of any general meeting shall be given to members. The notice shall set out where and when the meeting will be held, and particulars of the nature and order of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

7.4 Proceedings at general meetings

- a. Thirteen members present personally shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any general meeting provided that if a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to a date, time and place determined and notified to members by the President, and if at such adjourned general meeting a quorum is not present within 30 minutes of the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall form a quorum, save and except in respect of a matter that requires a special resolution .
- b. If within 30 minutes after the time appointed for a meeting convened upon the requisition of members a quorum of members is not present, the requisition shall lapse.
- c. The President, or a delegate appointed by the President, shall preside as chair at any general meeting of the Association.
- d. If a member is unable to be present at the meeting, he or she can make “call in” (through Skype Facetime or other digital tool)

7.5 Voting at general meetings

- a. Subject to this Constitution, every member of the Association has only one vote, per item, at any general meeting of the Association.
- b. Subject to this Constitution, a question for decision at a general meeting must be determined by a majority of votes cast by members present at that meeting.
- c. Unless a secret ballot is demanded by at least one member present at the general meeting, a question for decision at a general meeting shall be determined by a show of hands.

- d. Votes by proxy or post are not permitted.
- e. If a member fails to be present at the meeting but is able to vote through digital device, his or her vote shall be considered
- f. If a certain subject or decision is under the matter of voting, members can make digital vote which can be expressed through:
 1. Digital Chat in which half of committee members must be present online to make their vote
 2. If there multiple options, the option with highest votes will be considered

7.6 Elections at general meetings

- a. The elections shall be conducted by a Returning Officer, who is appointed by the Committee prior to the AGM
- b. The Returning Officer may not be nominated for a position on the Committee.
- c. Any candidate is entitled to designate a scrutineer, including themself, to observe the vote tallying process.
- d. All Committee positions are to be declared vacant at each Annual General Meeting.
- e. Nominations for election for positions can be received by the Returning Officer from the time at which notice is given by the Committee of the AGM until voting on that position is set to commence.
- f. A nomination for election to a position on the Executive can only be accepted if the person is a student or staff member of the University, or is a member of the Faculty.
- g. A nomination for election to the position of President can only be accepted if the person has previously served on the Committee.
- h. Nominations can be provided in writing to the Returning Officer or in person to the Chair.
- i. Voting for single member positions shall be conducted through a preferential voting system whereby candidates are numbered from one to the number of nominees. The candidate with the lowest tally is declared excluded and the votes distributed to remaining candidates in accordance with the preferences of each vote until only one candidate is remaining, who will be declared elected.
- j. Voting for multiple member positions shall be conducted by a Hare-Clark preferential voting system whereby candidates are numbered from one to the number of nominees. The quota for election shall be set as the number of formal votes cast divided by one greater than the number of positions open to election, plus one, rounded up. If a candidate's tally exceeds the quota for election then that candidate is declared elected and a transfer value will be determined and distributed in accordance with the next preference. If no candidate's tally exceeds the quota for election, the candidate with the lowest tally is declared excluded and the votes distributed to remaining candidates in accordance with the preferences of each vote. If the number of remaining candidates is equal to the number of unfilled positions, all remaining candidates shall be declared elected.

- k. In the case of a tie at any point in the counting of the votes, the candidate with the least first preference votes shall be excluded. If the candidates are still tied, the chair of the meeting shall have the casting vote.
- l. If only two nominations are received, voting may be conducted through either a show of hands or, if requested by member who is present at the meeting, a secret ballot.

8. MINUTES

- a. Proper minutes of all proceedings of General meetings of the Association and of meetings of the Committee, shall be entered within one month after the relevant meeting in minute books kept for the purpose.
- b. The minutes kept pursuant to this rule:
 - i. In respect of a General meeting, must be confirmed at the next GM;
 - ii. In respect of a Committee meeting, shall be deemed confirmed unless a member of the Committee notifies the Secretary in writing or email of a dispute as to their accuracy within seven days of their posting;
 - iii. In respect of a sub-committee meeting, shall be deemed confirmed unless a member of that sub-committee notifies the Assistant of that sub-committee in writing or email of a dispute as to their accuracy within seven days of their posting.
- c. The minutes kept pursuant to this clause shall be signed by the Chair of the GM at which the proceedings took place or by the Chair of the next succeeding GM at which the minutes are confirmed.
- d. Where minutes are entered and signed they shall, until the contrary is proved, be evidence that the meeting was duly convened; that the proceedings were duly conducted; and that all resolutions and appointments made at a meeting were duly made.
- e. Following an AGM the minutes of the preceding AGM, and all meetings of the Association, Committee, and subcommittees (if any) held during the period between those AGMs, shall be provided to The University of Adelaide Archives.

9. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- a. The dispute resolution procedure set out herein applies to disputes between:
 - i. a member and the Association; or
 - ii. a member and the Committee or Executive.
- b. The parties to the dispute must meet and discuss the matter in dispute and, if possible, resolve or conciliate the dispute within 14 days after the dispute comes to the attention of all of the parties to the dispute or to the attention of the President or Sergeant-At-Arms.

- c. If the parties are unable to resolve or conciliate the dispute at the meeting the parties may choose to meet and discuss the dispute before an independent third person/s agreed to by the parties, or absent agreement, a person/s determined by the Head of the Faculty of Science.

10. FINANCIAL REPORTING

The Association shall keep and retain such accounting records as are necessary to correctly record and explain the financial transactions and financial position of the Association.

11. PROHIBITION AGAINST SECURING PROFITS FOR MEMBERS

The income, capital, and property of the Association shall be applied exclusively to the promotion of its objects and no portion shall be paid or distributed directly or indirectly to members or their associates except as bona fide remuneration of a member for services rendered or expenses incurred on behalf of the Association.

12. WINDING UP

The Association may be wound up upon the special resolution of the Association at a GM.

13. APPLICATION OF SURPLUS ASSETS

Upon winding up of the Association, net assets (residual amount after all outstanding expenses are paid) are to be transferred to the Faculty of Sciences.

14. CONSTITUTIONAL PROCEDURE

- a. This Constitution may be altered (including an alteration to the Association's name) by special resolution of the members of the Association, subject to 7.5, but shall require a two thirds majority of votes cast.
- b. This Constitution shall bind the Association and every member of the Association.
- c. Subject to any provision in this Constitution or a resolution to the contrary, an alteration to this Constitution comes into force at the time that the alteration is passed.

Passed this 23 day of 10 2019
