7 Nominations

For the role of President there are the following nominations:

- Brittany Howell - Withdrawn
 AUScA has been an integral part of my uni life since I started. I am keen to step into a less intense role of honours rep, but would continue in exec if necessary
- Urwah Nawaz
 I'm currently in my 2nd (and 3rd) year studying Biomedical Science. I'm really enthusiastic about making university experience great for students, especially within the Faculty of Science! I currently volunteer with the International Student Centre to help new and current international students (from all faculty backgrounds) feel welcomed at Adelaide University.
 Apart from that, my previous job at Urbanest has helped me acquire the skills of event management and calendar based event planning. I'm also very organised and punctual when it comes to meetings and helping out at stalls etc.
- Emi Schutz
 I'm the current president of the Young Scientists of Australia (YSA) so I have the administration, organisation and communication skills needed to run a club. I've also been vice president of AUScA for the past year so I have good knowledge of the club and how everything works. If elected president I may bring cookies to meetings.

I have been a member of the AUScA for the past two years and have loved being able to meet other science students and get involved with the events that have been held. Since my experience has been so good, I would love the opportunity to help keep the Association going, and going well! I am very happy to sacrifice my own time to help out with or organise events. Thanks for considering me for these positions!

For the role of Secretary there are the following nominations:

- Catisha Coburn

I have been a member of AUSCA for the past two years and on the committee for one year. I love helping out the university community and would like to be able to contribute even more this year. I would be happy with any position on the committee, but I think that secretary would be a great way to get more experience and allow me the opportunity to help out most with AUSCA.

- Nibir Chowdhury

I should be elected because i think i have the necessary qualities to be a part of the science association committee. I am very punctual, dedicated to my responsibilities, have had experience as a representative of the student body (both at school and uni- currently i am the vice president of the university's vision generation club) and i want to make effective changes or improvements in need be for the betterment of the university, its staff and most importantly its students. Finally, i truly believe in making the university environment fun and exciting for its students and i am willing to work hard to achieve the goals of the science association.

For the role of Communications Officer there are the following nominations:

- Lauren Fuge
I've been attending AUScA events for the past couple of years and a few of my friends on the committee seem to really enjoy being a part of it, so I'd love to get more involved. The new position of the Communications Officer might suit me well because I'm interested in science communication and have some experience in managing a variety of social media accounts. I'm also keen to help out as a General Committee member if I don't get the Communications Officer role.
- Michael Capoccia
I am a third year student studying a Bachelor of Science majoring in Genetics and Microbiology. I believe I would make an excellent addition to the Science Association committee, as I have had significant previous experience working as part of a team in other organisations; in high school I was a founding member of the Information Technology Club, which included a student run news program and video website. I also actively participate in my local community through the Rotary club, where I have worked at their monthly markets helping with stalls and the barbecue. I believe I can use these skills and experiences to assist the association with organizing events such as the pubcrawl and helping out on any barbecues, as well as being a strong addition to the committee in terms of general event organisation. I hope to have the opportunity to assist the Sciences Association, and see it grow, as part of the team.

- Kirsten Smith

- already been a representative before so I have experience as part of the AUScA committee.
- Enjoy talking to people
- Enjoy organising events
- Used to contacting academics, through things such as mentoring
- Good at talking to a range and variety of people
- learnt from working in customer service and exchange
- dedicated to the success of the club

- Sarah Ishak Being a second year student myself, I would be happy to be a second year representative for AUSA. I am willing to put myself out there to find what other second year students dislike, like and would need or want from AUSA. I am friendly, approachable and always smiling and I feel like these qualities would give other second year students the confidence to provide their opinions about the association to me.

I feel that I am a hard worker and have good time management skills, thus it would be easy to make time for any requirements for the association as a general committee member; whether it is helping out in organising barbecues or simply selling pub crawl T-shirts. I guarantee that I will turn up to as many events as I can and will persevere in being a contributing member of this committee.

- Joshua Chey Hi, I'm Joshua Chey, and I am a second year biomedical science student.

What I really like about AUScA is that it brings together people who are passionate about science regardless of their backgrounds, and I enjoy meeting new and exciting individuals during AUScA events (esp pubcrawls!). So this year I would really love to be part of the team that makes this association great- and give the best I can so we can achieve its goals together.

If elected, this would be my first committee position in a university club. I am a reliable and responsible person, and I am also able to learn things quickly. I will be able to adapt quickly to the way clubs are run here.

My notable club experiences are:

- IT Director - Taylor's College (Malaysia) Pre-Medical Society
- I was responsible for managing online communication with members, administrating social media pages and creating club promotional material
- Member-in-charge (Operations)- St John Ambulance Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur SBU combined cadet division

- I was responsible of ensuring smooth club operations, heading the committee as well as planning and executing club plans and events.
- Head of discipline - High school Prefectorial board
- I was that mean guy that gave you 'the look' whenever you broke school rules

Apropos the above post by you, inviting applications for different positions in AUScA, I would like to file my candidature for 1st year Representative and General Committee member. I assure you of my relentless and dedicated services that would prove to be an asset for the Association. I am a punctual, disciplined and an extrovert person who can represent the science association in a very impressive way. Moreover, I am a 1st year international student pursuing Bachelor of Biomedical Science. So, I think I should get a chance to be in that position.

A President's report

Adelaide University Sciences Association
c/o AUU Clubs
Lady Symon Building
University of Adelaide
Victoria Drive
Adelaide 5005

To the members of the Adelaide University Sciences Association

It has been a privilege to serve you as president over the past year. I would like to begin my address by thanking the committee from the past year, for without their dedication and efforts, AUScA surely would not be where it is today. Secondly I would like to thank those members who are not on the committee and still volunteered their time at AUScA events, your efforts are always deeply valued. Finally I have some special mentions for those who did some outstanding work. I thank the team who put together the Quiz night, Kirsten, Ellen, Catisha, and Kieran. I thank Emi for this years sticker design and Jason for his design of our recent pubcrawl shirt. Finally Id like to thank all of those who helped out in the long hours at a barbecue, or sat signing people up on a stall. I understand how much effort goes into keeping AUScA active, and I truly appreciate everyones contribution to the club.

The membership of AUScA in 2015 reached 486 members, a slight decline on the 519 members of the previous year. However, this year we have already reached 319 and we have noticed attendance at events has increased, with record numbers at recent movie nights and meet and greets. Analysis of membership data has revealed that there were three peaks in our membership recruitments throughout 2015, the first and largest peak was at OWeek, where AUScA gained 287 members. The remaining peaks came from both of our pubcrawls (Beer-N-A and Schodingers Crow). Two important conclusions can be made from this data. Firstly, in order to sign up large numbers of members in OWeek, it is important to talk to the faculty and ask to promote AUScA to first years. Secondly, pubcrawls are intrinsic to the promotion and involvement of AUScA members. It is my recommendation to remain close to the faculty for recruitment purposes, and always keep pubcrawls on the AUScA event calendar.

In terms of the interests of our members, those with an interest in Molecular Biology are the most represented group, comprising 24% of the cohort. Following closely is Physics with 21%. Chemistry, Evolutionary Biology and Animal Science are similar with 13%, 11% and 10% respectively. Geology, Agricultural Science, and Oenology/Viticulture are our least represented groups, being represented by 5%, 4% and 2% of the membership in total.

Our most popular events remain to be pubcrawls. We have learned that the most successful pubcrawls are those with either witty pop culture references involving a science reference or a timeless, non-cheesy science idea. A classic example for a pop culture reference is Schrodingers Crow or our current shirt, Gravitational Raves. Both capitalise on current events. An example for a timeless, non-cheesy slogan is cell-fie, which has no event relevance, but was a phenomenal concept which lead to our best selling shirt. My recommendations in regards to future pubcrawls are: choose a design wisely, if the joke needs explaining, it isnt worth it. Secondly, choose a bright colour for the shirt, pubcrawls always look better when everyone is wearing something identifiable. Lastly, keep everyone together as much as possible on the route. Splitting up the group into separate pubs can ruin the mood.

Lastly, I would like to mention that AUScA is gaining a reputation surrounding our annual Quiz night. We always receive compliments predominantly about our science and pop culture rounds. I hope that as the years progress, AUScA retains its excellent standard of questions.

At the end of 2015, AUScA awarded lecturers for outstanding teaching. The winners included Derek Leinweiber (Physics), John Conran (Evolutionary Biology), Greg Metha (Chemistry), Paul Thomas (Molecular Biology) and Karin Barovich (Geology).

Lastly, I wish to formally acknowledge that 2016 is the 125th year of AUScA. Although there have been times of dormancy in our history, we are able to say that we are part of a society that is the oldest non-sporting club on campus, we are older even than the Adelaide University Union.

AUScA is continually growing and maturing, and it is my pleasure to see so many students benefitting from our work. I believe that AUScA has the potential to bring people of all disciplines and year levels together, much more than our classes do. Ive been apart of AUScA as first year rep, secretary and president, and I couldnt imagine my life without it. It is my wish that AUScA thrive, and always be a place for students to celebrate science.

Yours faithfully,

Brittany Howell

AUScA President
2015/16

B Treasurer's report

Adelaide University Sciences Association
c/o AUU Clubs
Level 2, Lady Symon Building
Victoria Drive
University of Adelaide
ADELAIDE 5005

To the members of the Adelaide University Sciences Association,

Over the past year, AUScA has completed the financial goal set out by the 2013 committee to set up the club into a secure financial position. After three years of growing the monetary reserve, future committees will now be able to afford to run events with a relatively large up-front cost, an example being the planned 125th Anniversary Ball.

Over the past financial year, AUScA has reregistered its bank account. Previously, the account name was "Society for Physics, Astronomy, Cosmology and Experimental Deeds", since which the club name has changed twice, firstly to "Scientific People's Association Containing Every Discipline" and then to AUScA. Due to the substantial relaunch of the society in 2013, the minutes of the meeting documenting the first name change were lost, requiring a brand new account as opposed to changing the account name. The account is now one-to-sign, as opposed the previous two-to-sign, making it possible to make online reimbursements to committee members as opposed to writing a cheque or withdrawing from the petty-cash, which is generally poor practice.

Once again, memberships and pub crawl shirt sales make a bulk majority of the income, although barbecues and quiz nights tend to break even based even due to non-member sales. Events like the annual dinner run at a net loss, paid for in part by grants and accumulated income throughout the year. As a quick note on the opening balance, the previous year's treasurers report cites the closing balance as $8464.61, but the semester one pub crawl was paid for a few days later at a cost of $2680.00. In the figures below, only the semester two pub crawl is included, whereas the previous reporting period included a total of three pub crawls.

Finally, I wish to thank AUScA for the privilege of allowing me to serve as treasurer over the last year, and as president the two years prior. It has been an absolute honour and a joy. I wish to thank the past committee members, in particular the past treasurer Irene Willcocks for the many hours of hard work and dedication to bring AUScA to its position today. To the future committee members, I wish you all the best, and I know that you will take AUScA to places we could scarcely dream when we restarted it in 2013.

Yours Sincerely,

Ben Geytenbeek
